I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE*MASS
INTENTIONS

For the past three weeks the Liturgy is keeping us centered on the mystery of the Holy Eucharist. We have seen various parables (the seed, the soil, the manna...) and miracles (multiplication of the five loaves for five thousand people) and today Jesus explains to us in words that HE is the real bread of life.

After the multiplication of the loaves of bread, people were thinking of making Him a king, but Jesus hid away. People keep looking for Him, but Jesus reminds them that the scope they are looking for Him is very material and probably selfish and egotistical. You are looking for me "not because of the signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves".

Do we have the right motivations for our faith? When we search for God, do we have alter motives? Are we looking for His glory or are we looking for our own interests?

Then Jesus continues correcting their spiritual orientation: "Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life". Whatever we gain in this life, even the greatest achievement of our career, will end at our death. Only the spiritual works have the possibility of lasting forever. So, it is more profitable to gain something that lasts forever, then something that will end in a few years.

Then the people of the Gospel want to hear from Jesus what they have to do in order to achieve eternal life. So, Jesus gives them two teachings: First you must believe. Yes, because without faith, no spiritual life is possible. Secondly, he points out that as Moses had given them Manna, now He (the New Moses) is giving the Eucharist, the bread from heaven. Actually He, himself is that bread of life, sent by the Father. The manna of Moses was only a sign, which was referring to the real bread of life, the Eucharist, the body and blood of Christ.

If we want to live spiritually, we need the spiritual food, that is the Holy Eucharist. To keep our natural life going strong, we eat three times a day; equally, to keep our spiritual life strong we need the spiritual food, the bread of life, Jesus Himself. And this bread and wine will quench our hunger and thirst for now and for eternity.

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty".
